WHAT DO YOU SEE?

There are also many cultural intersections between CMU and other organizations in the surrounding area. This is what inspired us, Korawich Kavee and Tiffany Chang, to start this project as part of the 2025-2026 Libraries Student Advisory Council (LSAC)

Pittsburgh can get pretty snowy. Though it can be a bit tricky to walk on snow, most of the time it's still manageable thanks to the staff from CMU Facilities Management Services (FMS).

I sometimes notice a good view from ordinary walking trip to home passing through this space. Cathy with sun set in the back? no way I am passing by without taking a shot.

Campus life powered by cheese, bacon, and questionable time management. Nothing hits quite like a Stack'd Underground affrodable burger

Fall at CMU hits different. It has quiet paths, warm light on Morewood, and that perfect mix of crunching leaves and campus calm before the next exam drops.
